Jan has been quietly steering historic preservation & education efforts in our county for decades. Detailed & organized, she builds coalitions to make big projects like the Good Neighbor Trail & Chinsegut Hill Manor restoration happen. A master grant writer, she has brought millions of dollars in appropriations to our community. Always working to inspire interest in our history, Jan often dons period costumes to help set the tone for her listeners.

"I want people to learn & be able to see first hand what a great treasure we have in our little town." - regarding her work as an Historic Mural Tour Guide
